2017 HOLIDAY WISH LIST

Thank you for your generosity and concern over this holiday season. United Way of Long Island's community partner agencies are seeking donations of goods and volunteer services to help needy families in your community.

Attached is a list of the organizations seeking holiday donations, along with contact persons so you may contact those of interest. Requested items are generally new. If an organization indicates "gently used" items, please ensure items are clean and in working order.

Volunteer opportunities and agencies that operate Adopt-a-Family programs are also listed. Please feel free to copy and distribute this list.
