WHEN YOU SUPPORT THE LONG ISLAND IMPACT FUND YOU'RE SUPPORTING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN NEED

One-in-three Long Island families struggle each and every day to afford the basic needs, including: food, housing, transportation and adequate medical coverage. The best way to help Long Islanders is to support the Long Island Impact Fund. Together with our community partners, United Way of Long Island fights for the health, education and financial stability of every person in every community.

LONG ISLAND IMPACT FUND COMMUNITY PARTNERS

United Way of Long Island recognizes that no single group can address the complex problems that matter most to a community, whether it's responding to a crisis such as domestic abuse or working long-term to improve the quality of early education. That's why United Way and its dedicated nonprofit partners share a common vision and commitment to measuring results every step of the way.

United Way and its more than 100 nonprofit partners are at the forefront of responding to the health and human service needs of our communities. United Way partners to collaborate on initiatives in the areas of Education, Income/Financial Stability and Health to advance the common good and offer a safety net of services to families and individuals who live on Long Island.
