AAIF Youth Leadership Scholarship

https://www.aaiusa.org/scholarships_aai

The Helen Abbott Community Service Awards are a youth leadership program of the Arab American Institute Foundation. Given annually to Arab Americans under 30, these awards honor students and student organizations whose devotion to community service, selfless acts of care, and interest in improving the quality of life for others reflect the life of the Awards' namesake.

The Helen Abbott Community Service Awards is given in two categories: (1) achievement by a college/university student and (2) achievement by a high school student. The Foundation awards a maximum of three $1,000 individual prizes.

The application deadline is early March.

NIA Scholarship Fund

nia.org/scholarship/

In order to encourage growth and public awareness of the insulator hobby through collecting, dealing, and educational endeavors the National Insulator Association, Inc. (NIA) has established the NIA Scholarship Fund.

The student's undergraduate study may be in any academic area.

Applicants must be a candidate for a degree at an eligible educational institution, and the scholarship must be used to pay qualified education expenses.

You are a candidate for a degree if you attend a secondary school or are pursuing a degree at a college or university, or you attend an accredited educational institution that is authorized to provide a program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's or higher degree.

Qualified education expenses are for tuition and fees required to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution. They also include course-related expenses, such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment that are required of all students in your course of instruction.

Grants may be awarded as an Academic or a Vocational Scholarship. The scholarship amounts will vary, but the total will not exceed $2000 for a given year.

The application deadline is early March.

The Bego Fund Scholarship

<https://www.unigo.com/scholarships/all/the-bego-fund-scholarship/>

This scholarship is awarded in memory of Begonia Alvarez Fernandez. 'Bego,' as she was known to her friends, was the daughter of immigrants and was the first in her family to receive an undergraduate degree. In addition to her family and friends, Bego treasured two things in life: kids and education. This scholarship seeks to honor her memory and her values.

To be eligible:

- Must be a high school senior or older at time of application and be enrolled or planning to enroll in an undergraduate or graduate program.
- Must be a resident of New Jersey, New York or Pennsylvania.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Preference will be given to a student who is from an immigrant family and is either a U.S. resident, naturalized citizen or a first-generation U.S. citizen.

The scholarship award: $1,000 annually, for high school students. $4,000 annually for college students. Both awards are non-renewable. Previous recipients will be eligible to re-apply if a 'B' average is maintained during the award period.

The application deadline is late March.

April Deadlines

Salifu Sesay Perseverance Scholarship

<https://www.growyourgiving.org/scholarships/salifu-sesay-perseverance-scholarship>

As a child, Salifu survived a brutal attack on his village in Sierra Leone, and was eventually brought to the University of Kansas for treatment. Upon adoption by a local family in the Olathe area, Salifu became known as a kind-hearted, generous, and always optimistic young man. Tragically, his time on this Earth was cut short in his 21st year of life, but each year a scholarship is provided in his name to a young student who exemplifies his qualities.

Award Amount: $1,000 annually, renewable for up to three additional years so long as the student maintains a grade point average of 3.3 or higher.

The application deadline is mid-April.
