United Way of Long Island's Scholarship Programs 2026

United Way of Long Island advances the common good, creating opportunities for a better life for all by focusing on three key building blocks: health, education, and financial stability.

We're on a mission to increase opportunities for students who face unique financial challenges which can make education seem out of reach. United Way's Scholarship program is an undergraduate college scholarship program that may be used to pay for tuition, fees and room and board, or commuter allowances, if applicable.

Scholarships are available through the following funds

Application Tips

Here are some things you can do to prepare for a competitive application:

Talk to parents, counselors, mentors, and teachers about your plans and how to be a strong candidate for pre-college enrichment or college admission and student aid.

Carefully consider which teacher, school administrator, community leader or other non-family member to ask for a reference letter. You should select an individual who has engaged in your community service activities during the school year or summer and who can provide insight into your academic performance and potential for success in pursuing pre-college enrichment or a college/university degree.

For graduating high school seniors, apply for federal student aid. Go to www.FAFSA.ed.gov to familiarize yourself with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and to get more information on federal student aid. If you are a finalist, we will use this form to confirm your eligibility and better understand your financial needs.

Review your transcript to ensure your GPA and coursework meet the eligibility requirements.

Let our advisory board get to know you through a well written essay that conveys how your interests, goals, motivation, and experiences have shaped your decision to pursue pre-college enrichment or undergraduate degree. Be sure to have someone proof your essay for spelling and grammar.

Further Details

The United Way of Long Island Scholarship Advisory Board will review, select, and notify the recipient by July 22, 2024. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, or disability. Awards are distributed directly to the educational institution.

Applicant and parent/guardian signatures indicate that all information contained in the application is complete and factually accurate. If any information is found to be false, this may result in forfeiture of the scholarship award. It is the responsibility of the scholarship award recipient to submit reports at the end of the semester for which the scholarship was received.

For undergraduate college scholarships, grade reports are required at the end of each semester along with the next semester tuition bill. Students must achieve a GPA of 2.0 or above. Reasonable explanation and corrective action essays for those not achieving the required GPA will be considered.
