Together, Anything Is Possible

At United Way of Long Island, we are committed to building a brighter future.

Four simple words define United Way of Long Island's mission – Health, Education, and Financial Stability. The continued support of a caring community enables us to create stronger, more equitable communities where everyone can thrive.

- Over 60,000 children received back-to-school supplies since 2008
- Over $1 million awarded in academic and enrichment scholarships since 2002
- 30,000 families received a grant to heat their homes since 1995
- 8-Time U.S. Dept. of Energy Housing Innovation Award Winner for affordable high performance homes

Thank you for helping us build a brighter future for working families, veterans, older adults, and individuals across Long Island.

86 cents of every dollar raised goes directly to programs and services provided by United Way of Long Island to those in need.

United Way of Long Island holds a 4-star (highest) rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest evaluator of charities, and is a Candid (formerly GuideStar) platinum-rated charity. United Way has also met all BBB® Standards for Charity Accountability and is BBB Accredited.

of Long Island households have difficulty meeting their basic needs.
