

United Way of Long Island

Young Professionals Network

In communities across Long Island, United Way of Long Island works every day to ensure every child has a quality education, every family has a stable income, and all Long Islanders enjoy good health.

United Way of Long Island's Young Professionals Network (YPN) is an energized group of working young professionals committed to helping make a difference for communities across Long Island. The YPN inspires professional growth and provides meaningful connections through networking, mentorship, philanthropy, and volunteerism. Members leverage personal and professional networking skills to help advocate for support of United Way's vital services for the next generation.
